NEW BUSINESS:

At this time Supervisor Wightman recognized the Willing Fire Dept. members. Mr. Earl Stonemetz shared that in the last 3 years the average of responders has increase, many young members are joining, training is being done, over all he feels that the Fire Dept. is going in the right direction now.

Resident Alan Carlin was recognized: He is looking for answer as to why the Towns equalization rate drop so quickly. Would it be possible to have a State Representative come and speak to the board? Is there a certain number of parcels bought and sold that triggers a drop in the Towns Rate.

Councilwoman Roeske suggested contacting the Association of Towns. The board decided to have Assessor Glass contact them for any information possible.
